MY LADY'S CABINET

DECORATED WITH DRAWINGS

AND MINIATURES

LONDON:

SAMPSON LOW, MARSTON, LOW, AND SEARLE,

CROWN BUILDINGS, FLEET STREET.

1873.

PREFACE.

VISIT to a lady's boudoir, daintily hung with water-colour drawings and many family portraits in their little oval frames, suggested the plan of decoration adopted in these pages.

Though we are unable to reproduce the landscapes of Turner, Stanfield and Birket Foster, or the charming portraits of Boxall, Frith and Richmond in all their beauty, we can, at least, give faithful copies of them in miniature; and it is hoped that a quarter of an hour spent in looking through our little gallery will somewhat compensate those who are unable to see the original gems of art which are included in "MY LADY'S CABINET."
